HILLCREST SCHOOL

EDMONTON , ALBERTA

1971 - 72

Dedication

We, the yearbook staff, have decided to dedicate this book to the many pioneers at Hillcrest. A pioneer "is a person who goes first or does something first and so prepares the way for others." Each of us at Hillcrest has gone ahead and opened a door for himself and for many others, consequently, we feel each student to be a pioneer in some sense of the word. This yearbook is thus dedicated to you, one of the many pioneers of Hillcrest Junior High School.

PRAIRIE SOLITUDE

Under the blistering heat of the sun
He stands on the prairie, dusty and dry.
The cool clouds are hidden; the air is close
In the great open wide expanse of the sky.

Not a breath of wind stirs the vast prairie range;
The plains remain tranquil -- no motion
in sight.
And fierce the sun beats 'till the long
day is done
When, mercifully, comes the short,
cooling night.

And under the stars he lies down to rest
His body, weary from the toil of the day.
And he can sleep, and forget for the night,
His home and his family, so far away.

WHAT CAN IT HELP

Trudy Glanville 9-1

"Your wife is dead, Mr. Watland."

Jacob Watland sank onto the nearest seat sobbing pathetically. Suddenly a deep anger and hatred rose up in him.

"I'll kill him," he sneered "With my own two hands. He killed an innocent person, my wife..."

His sobs filled the air.

"Mr. Watland, I know this is a shock to you, but killing that helpless drunk won't bring your wife back; he's being charged."

"Sure he's being charged, but what can all the charges in the world help when someone's been killed? That drunk wasn't helpless. He was a damned fool to drive in his condition. Why don't the police do something?"

"We're trying, but we need the public's help to get anywhere;"

IF YOU DRIVE AFTER DRINKING

Randy Miyagishima 7-3

Do you drive after drinking? Please think about what could happen if you do.

Mr. Jones attended an office party. He only had a few drinks and he felt fine. In fact he said he was as sober as a judge, but on the way home he drove through a red light and hit a mother and child who were going home from Christmas shopping. The impact threw them fifty feet. Bright toys were scattered about, but there would be no more Christmas celebrations for them. The child was killed instantly, the mother died later in hospital. Mr. Jones was charged with impaired driving and paid his fine, but no amount of payment would ever let him forget what he had done. It's too late to prevent Mr. Jones' accident but remember this could happen to you.

Think about how you would feel if you hurt or killed someone. Think about your sorrow.

This year if you drink alcohol, ride in a cab. It is cheap insurance against an accident, and the life you save might be your own.

Message

In the not too distant future, many of us will be leaving these "hallowed halls" of learning. Some of us have attended Hillcrest for three years, some for two years, and some only this past year. Regardless of the time spent here, our characters have been gently moulded by the guidance of our teachers, as well as by the other staff members. For this we shall be forever in their debt.

The reputation of this school has been good since the day it opened, now nearly a decade ago. The name HILLCREST on the team sweater meant fair play. Hillcrest students have always participated enthusiastically in all activities. We, who are leaving, hope the good name shall be carried on.

This is the remembrance, the legacy, we, the graduating class, leave the future students of Hillcrest Junior High School. We wish you the best of luck in the years to come.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the students and staff for their support in the past year.

Editorial

We selected "the old West" as the theme for this year's Big Wheel. Why? For most of us on the staff, the first thing that came to mind when "Big Wheel" was mentioned was either "Western Days" or "Old West", both themes being quite similar.

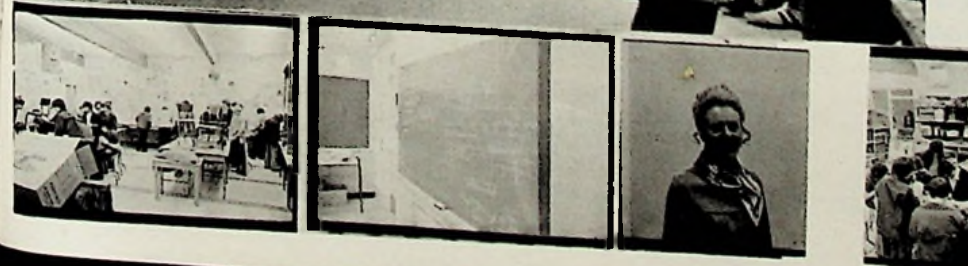

I hope you enjoy reading this year's book as much as we enjoyed compiling it, even though it represents a year of aggravation, argument, and general confusion on the part of some members, mostly myself. As it turned out, it has become a profitable experience for myself and the rest of the staff. This year a new door was opened and I began to realize that a certain brand of people is willing to go out of its way to bring help and pleasure to others. To these people I express my deepest thanks and admiration.

Communication Problem

"I know you believe you understand what you think I said, but I'm not sure you realize that what you heard is not what I meant."

Principal's Message

Again it is my privilege -- a pleasant one -- to address a message to a graduating class.

There is a common notion that society is on the rocks, that the youth of our land has gone to the dogs, that all young people are soulless, godless, without morals, honesty, nor honor.

Of course this is arrant nonsense. Granted, there are fools among us, just enough to keep the rest of us vigilant, but the majority of today's homes and schools is a denial of the above accusations.

On the whole I have a high opinion of our students. Nowadays young people are better educated, better informed and better prepared for future experiences than the junior high students of my generation. They can express themselves with greater skill and confidence; they have more poise and social ease and in some ways they are more mature. I expect you to live up to the high opinion that we have of you.

During your years at Hillcrest our teachers have done their best for you. You have been taught well; in addition, you have been coaxed, persuaded, admonished and at times threatened -- but for one purpose -- to get you to achieve your best.

Although all of us are vastly imperfect people trying to do a great job in education, from my experience I know that Hillcrest is doing a good job. I pray that some of our good qualities have rubbed off on each of you.

Finally, in bidding good-bye for all of us at Hillcrest, my wish is that you have a long and happy life, and enough success to be good for you!

Vice - Principal's Message

Another year of study will soon be over and it is my hope that in addition to the academic learning you have acquired, you are also beginning to understand the term, "personal responsibility". The acceptance of personal responsibility is a very important part of growing up and for our graduation class especially, is a factor which is very important as you enter high school. The large environment of the high school sometimes seems to be an impersonal place where the opportunity to skip classes and neglect homework may seem to be an easy course to follow. This could be a rapid road to failure for the student who has not learned that he alone is responsible for his actions and decisions. If he chooses to skip classes, and certainly he will be faced with the temptation many times, then when low marks follow he must understand that this is the consequence of his own actions and he cannot place the blame on his teachers, his parents, his friends or anyone else. If you go on in future accepting an increasing role of responsibility than you are well on the way to success.

To the Grade Eight and Grade Seven students, I would point out that your roles of responsibility are increasing now. The Grade Eight students will next year be the leaders in the school and set the pace for attitude and behaviour. Lest you think that my thoughts are all on the serious side, I would point out that there are many opportunities for fun and enjoyment in various school activities. The better organized the student group the more worthwhile the activities that can take place and the more enjoyable the school environment will be for both teachers and students.

CLUBS - ORGANIZATIONS

CHEERLEADERS

Last fall, our two Home Economics teachers, Miss Larsen and Mrs. Mann, organized Hillcrest's Cheerleaders for the 1971/72 sports season. Our Cheerleaders continue to demonstrate the team spirit and sportsmanship shown by previous Hillcrest Cheerleaders. Clad in blue and gold costumes, the girls cheered at Hillcrest's volleyball and basketball games, at home and away.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES

Girls' Sports Activities

A "Year of Participation" sums up 1971/72. This year at Hillcrest the emphasis has been on noon-hour activities and the participation has been fantastic. Enthusiasm, which started last spring during the mosquito-plagued track and field, and rainy softball seasons, carried over to this fall. Hillcrest's world of sports then began with the appearance of the girls' cross country team.

A record twenty-eight teams participated in the volleyball tournaments for grades seven, eight, and nine. We played a lot of volleyball during November and December!!

Mrs. Hofer With the addition of a new balance beam, the gymnastic club participation doubled. The grade eight and nine junior basketball teams gained valuable game experience with neighboring schools this season. The physical education option classes participated in some Hillcrest firsts -- co-ed volleyball, jug lacrosse, and social dance. Sports is an important factor in the activities of our school, linking students together and promoting school spirit. Will 1972/73 be another "Year of Participation"?

Boys' Sports Activities

Mr. Meek

The boys' athletic program at Hillcrest this year has been very successful. Participation rose tremendously. In the spring, our boys' soccer team started out the year with a string of victories that led them to the city championship game, where they were defeated 2-1 by Donnan. While the soccer team was winning, intermural football was also thriving at all grade levels. The season ended with the teachers' team defeating an All-Star grade nine team. Volleyball was big at Hillcrest this year, from the intermural leagues up to the senior boys' team. The spring also marked the second year of the Hillcrest Cross-Country run, the number of boys entering tripled from last year. New class activities, as continental handball, 2-ball soccer, co-ed volleyball, and dancing were very popular. After Christmas, the basketball and wrestling teams began workouts in earnest: the basketball team advanced to the playoffs before bowing out in overtime. The wrestling team also showed their muscles by taking fifth place in the city and included four city champs in their ranks. This fall's activities are rounded out by intermural soccer and the track and field season, and if the earlier activities have been any indication they should also be very successful.

ORATORY

WINNERS: Denise Burrell Gr. 7
Gary Brown Gr. 8
Brad Hiron Gr. 9

Last year a contest judging a student's ability to speak to an audience originated. The students were given a choice of topics on which to write and speak. The best class presentations were invited to the semi-finals; winners here were invited to compete in the finals. The final winner from each grade received a trophy donated by the staff at Hillcrest, and his name is engraved on the G. P. Nicholson Trophy, donated by the former Principal of Hillcrest School. The annual Hillcrest Oratory Competition is a worthwhile experience.

MUSICAL ACTIVITIES

Band Director:
Mr. D.S. Smith

Another year of highlights and opportunities involving the Hillcrest Junior High Bands has drawn to an end. Another year of practice and slavery, competition and triumphs has come to a close. Music has played an important part in entertainment at Hillcrest. The Concert Bands entertained at Parent-Teachers' Night, Band Concerts, Grade Six Orientation and Awards Night, while smaller bands like the Dixieland Band and Boys' Band, played at Band Concerts and the Oratory Night. They have been involved in money-making concerts and projects to send the Senior Concert Band to Lethbridge and replace old instruments with new ones, competition in the Annual Kiwanis Music Festival, and visits to neighboring elementary schools. Sincere thanks must be given to Mr. Smith and Mr. Adams, who made Hillcrest's Bands exceptional.
